

Getting the most out of your film.

Definition Rear Projection Film is a high contrast, high definition rear projection film. It gives you the ability to place rear projection screens in practically any lighting conditions. As with all DualView Films, you have the freedom to view it on either side - front or rear projection.

Specifications of DualView Definition

55%
Transmission of Light

175°
Maximum Viewing Angle

94%
Haze

100µm
Thickness

